

Bibliography

Primary Sources

- "Draft Deserter Gets Life Term," Spokesman-Review, June 20, 1918, 5, Newspapers.com;
- "Seattle Bomb Plotters Are Foiled," Seattle Star, February 23, 1931, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Hagen Denies Any Part in Bombing Plot at Bakery," Seattle Star, February 26, 1931, 5, Newspapers.com;
- "Blast Perils Lives of 5 Workmen," Seattle Star, February 27, 1931, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Bomb Wrecks Golden Rule Bakery Plant," Peninsula Daily News, February 27, 1931, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Fiend Clue Revealed in New Bakery Dynamiting," Seattle Daily Times, February 27, 1931, 1, 3, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Will Seattle Tolerate Racketeering? Advertisement," Seattle Daily Times, February 24, 1931, 17, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Does the Northwest Want Freedom...or Dictatorship through Terrorism?" Seattle Daily Times, March 1, 1931, 16, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Ex-Cop Is Freed: Bomb Case Dismissed Against Hagen," Seattle Star, July 31, 1931, 3, Newspapers.com;
- "Dairy Bombers at Snoqualmie Elude Cordon," Seattle Daily Times, February 13, 1932, 1, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Golden Rule Dairy Bombed: Racketeers From Seattle Believed Guilty of Attack at Local Plant," Snoqualmie Valley Record, February 18, 1932, 1, Snoqualmie Valley Museum Archives;
- "Dozens Desert Homes in Flood of Snoqualmie," Seattle Daily Times, February 28, 1932, 18, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Arson Plot Endangers Snoqualmie," Seattle Daily Times, March 1, 1932, 1, Seattle Times Archives;

- "Racketeers Again Visit Snoqualmie," Snoqualmie Valley Record, March 3, 1932, 1, Snoqualmie Valley Museum Archives;
- "Fire Menace Seen," Bellingham Herald, March 2, 1932, 9;
- "Price of Milk Up One Cent," Seattle Star, July 25, 1933, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Bomb Wrecks Snohomish Dairy," Seattle Star, November 28, 1933, 1, 2, Washington Digital Newspapers;
- "Blast Climax to Three Yrs. Labor Dispute," Seattle Star, November 28, 1933, 1, 2, Newspapers.com;
- "Racketeers Bomb Golden Rule Dairy Plant at Sno," Snoqualmie Valley Record, November 30, 1933, 1, Snoqualmie Valley Museum Archives;
- "3 Claim They Were Kidnapped," Seattle Star, March 1, 1934, 2, Washington Digital Newspapers;
- "Bold Bad Bandits Busy," Snoqualmie Valley Record, March 1, 1934, 1, Snoqualmie Valley Museum Archives;
- "Milk Truck Ruined by 2 Racketeers," Tacoma Daily Ledger, March 1, 1934, 2, Newspapers.com;
- "Two Men Sought in Hold-Up, Wreck of Milk Truck," Seattle Daily Times, March 1, 1934, 18, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Case of William Pemberton," Washington Veteran, January 16, 1935, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Undesirable Aliens Operate in Ways Hurtful to People Struggling For Existence," Washington Veteran, February 12, 1935, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Bakery and Dairy Operator Foe of Labor and Menace to Community Is Charge," Washington Veteran, March 9, 1935, 1, Newspapers.com;
- "Chief Warns Men in Labor Dispute," Seattle Daily Times, April 14, 1935, 4, Seattle Times Archives;
- "Dairy's Fight Brings Action," Seattle Star, August 22, 1935, 1, Newspapers.com; Joint Council of Teamsters,
- "Golden Rule Losing Business," February 28, 1936, UW Digital Archive, <https://depts.washington.edu/labhist/encyclopedia/yearbook1936.shtml>;
- "Bakery Labor Trouble Ends," Seattle Daily Times, June 2, 1936, 3, Newspapers.com.

Secondary and Legal Sources

- Alsobrook, Adam S. "Landmark Nomination Application: Golden Rule Dairy / Stoneway Electric Supply, 3665 Stone Way North, Seattle, Washington." Marvin Anderson Architects PLLC, submitted to the City of Seattle Department of Neighborhoods Historic Preservation Office, August 6, 2019, https://www.seattle.gov/documents/Departments/Neighborhoods/HistoricPreservation/Landmarks/CurrentNominations/LPBCurrentNom_Golden_Rule_Dairy.pdf;
Milk Wagon Drivers' Union, Local No. 753 v. Lake Valley Farm Products, Inc., 311 U.S. 91 (1940), <https://caselaw.findlaw.com/court/us-supreme-court/311/91.html>.